

Rockin' Christmas

Fraser resident Jason Hartless, 14, took a break from his young music career to drum up support for the U.S. Marine Corps Toys for Tots program Dec. 13. Hartless held his fifth annual all-day musical benefit outside the Toys "R" Us store in Sterling Heights near Lakeside Mall.

Above: Emily Kaczynski of Clinton Township brought a toy to the fundraiser to donate to Toys for Tots.

Left: Hartless' band Shram and other bands spent the day performing under a tent while encouraging shoppers and guests to throw a toy into the collection box.

