

Best of the MAC

MAC's finest volleyball players earn top honors

BY SUE TEGGART
C & G Sports Writer

The volleyball season is now officially over, so it's time to congratulate the players and coaches who excelled during the regular season and received All-Conference honors in their respective divisions.

League Most Valuable Player honors and Coach of the Year awards were also handed out.

MAC Red

Marysville High captured its second straight league title after posting a 7-3 record. Marysville's Kim Deland was voted the league's MVP; the Coach of the Year honor went to Marysville coach Paul Levandowski.

All-Conference selections were Deland and fellow seniors Shelbe Vollmer and Ashley Thibodeau, Marysville; Emily Kujawski and Marecca Jordan, Macomb Dakota; Julie Sanders, Kaitlin Minchella and Cassey Kelly, Fraser High; Maddie Kent, Grosse Pointe North; Jessica DeLeeuw, L'Anse Creuse; and Kayla Zauner, Port Huron Northern.

MAC White

Fair Haven Anchor Bay captured its first league championship in its new division, posting a 9-1 record. The league's MVP was Anchor Bay's Rachel Carlisi; Coach of the Year honors went to Anchor Bay's Matt Duffield.

All-Conference players were Carlisi, Rebecca Ratkov and Jenna Mallast, Anchor Bay; Erica Sell, Megan Gutzke and Courtney Johnson, Clinton Township Chippewa Valley; Katarzyna Sak and Danielle Meyer, Warren Cousino; Katie

See MAC on page 13A

Fraser High senior Julie Sanders goes airborne to send a ball back across the net during a match earlier this season. Sanders was named to the MAC Red All-Conference squad along with teammates Cassey Kelly and Kaitlin Minchella.

Photo by
Patricia O'Blenes